[C] COMMUNITY CINEMA

A Path Appears

By Maro Chermayeff

From the team that brought you the groundbreaking Half the Sky, A Path Appears goes to Colombia, Haiti, Kenya, and the USA to uncover the harshest forms of gender-based oppression and human rights violations, and solutions being implemented to combat them. (Jan 17)

American Denial

By Llewellyn Smith, Christine Herbes-Sommers, and Kelly Thomson

In 1944 Nobel Laureate Gunnar Myrdal asked: How could America's belief in liberty and equality also enable Jim Crow segregation? American Denial uses Myrdal's inquiry to probe — through a diverse chorus of commentators — the power of unconscious biases today in what some have called post-racial America. (Feb 21)

Community Cinema films & community discussions are presented in partnership with WSIU on the 3rd Saturday of the month, 2:30 pm, in the library meeting room.

A Day in the Life: Kids and Seniors Share Stories

For the Carbondale Public Library's Ezra Jack Keats mini-grant, we worked with the Boys & Girls Club of Carbondale and Senior Adult Services to create an inter-generational picture book. Thirty-two seniors and kids created the book's story and illustrations. The book, A Day in the Life: Kids and Seniors Share Stories, tells the overarching story of kids and seniors coming together, and includes the stories they swapped. The book will be available for check-out soon, and each author will receive a copy at the Book Release Party and Art Exhibit, Wednesday, February 4 at 5:30pm at the library. This project received some national press! To read about it, go to www.libraryasincubatorproject.org and search for Carbondale. There are currently two articles, with two more on the way!

ILA Reporter articles about the Carbondale Public Library

The December 2014 issue of the Illinois Library Association's "ILA Reporter" can be viewed online at www.ila.org. The issue features three articles about the Carbondale Public Library. Our Director authored "Reading Reduces Recidivism: Getting Books to Prison Libraries" and "Phil Klay Comes to Carbondale." The "My Turn" opinion piece, "Libraries Are Happiness" was authored by CPL patron Alice Winters, an 81-year-old retired educator who often attends our computer classes.
